II. Business Results and Financial Position

1. Overview of the Current Fiscal Year

1) Business results and overall condition

Despite firm production and shipments for all but a few products, the Chemicals industry faced an extremely challenging business environment as raw material and fuel prices continued to rise rapidly during the fiscal year. This was particularly true in the second half, when already high raw material and fuel prices rose even higher. The Group worked to improve profitability of all Group companies through stringent cost reduction while focusing all efforts on marketing activities in response to this business environment. As a result of these efforts, consolidated operating results for the current fiscal year were as follows:

(Units: millions of yen)

	Net sales	Operating income	Recurring income	Net income
Current year	1,472,435	58,705	61,989	44,125
Previous year	1,227,541	80,491	79,737	26,192
Change	244,888	(21,786)	(17,748)	17,733
Change (%)	19.9%	(27.1)%	(22.3)%	68.5%

Sales increased by 19.9% year-on-year to 1.47 trillion yen, an increase of 244.9 billion yen over the previous year. The primary contributing factors were 105 billion yen from price hikes to bring product prices in line with rapidly rising raw material and fuel prices for naphtha, etc. and 139.9 billion yen from an increase in volume sales resulting from the establishment of Prime Polymer Co., Ltd., a joint venture with Idemitsu Kosan Co., Ltd., in April 2005.

Overseas sales were 523.3 billion yen, comprising 35.5% of Group sales.

Despite the revision in product prices, a substantial increase in the cost of goods sold, due to the steep rise in raw material and fuel prices such as naphtha, caused operating income to decline 27.1% year-on-year to 58.7 billion yen, a decrease of 21.8 billion yen compared with the previous year.

The method of accounting for depreciation of tangible fixed assets has changed for the Company and some consolidated subsidiaries, beginning with the current period.

A 4.1 billion yen improvement in net non-operating profits over the previous year resulted in a 22.3% year-on-year decline in recurring income to 62.0 billion yen, or a decline of 17.7 billion yen over the previous year. The improvement in net non-operating profit resulted from an increase in non-operating income of 3.2 billion yen over the previous year due to a 1.2 billion yen increase in profits from equity interests and a 2.0 billion yen increase due to foreign exchange gains, and to a 900 million yen decline in non-operating expenses over the previous year due to a decline in interest payments as interest-bearing debt was reduced, and also to a decline in losses on the disposition of defective goods and other factors.

The recurring income margin (Return on Sales) was 4.2%, owing to these factors.

Extraordinary income was 22.3 billion yen, due to 9.4 billion yen in profit from the equity interest taken in Prime Polymer Co., Ltd. and to a 10.3 billion yen gain from the establishment of a retirement benefit trust. Extraordinary losses were 11.4 billion yen, due to 7.9 billion yen in losses on the disposition and sale of fixed assets and to 1.5 billion yen in impairment losses. This resulted in net extraordinary profits of 10.9 billion yen, an improvement of 35.9 billion yen over the previous year.

The above factors resulted in net profit before taxes and other adjustments for the current period of 72.9 billion yen, an increase of 18.2 billion yen over the previous year.

Current fiscal year's net profit after adjustment for taxes and minority interests rose 68.5% year-on-year to 44.1 billion yen, an increase of 17.9 billion yen over the previous year. This represents earnings per share of 56.20 yen for the current fiscal year.

Functional Chemicals and Engineered Materials

In the Hygienic Materials business, demand for nonwoven fabric posted strong growth in East and Southeast Asia, particularly in the Thai and Chinese markets; however, overseas sales of permeable film declined under severe conditions, resulting in a 5% decline in sales compared with the previous year.

Sales of Construction Materials were in line with the previous year, supported mainly by demand for civil engineering materials. Sales of Semiconductor Materials rose 13% over the previous year, remaining firm due to the active expansion of sales for semiconductor gas, despite the adverse impact from price declines in the semiconductor and liquid crystal markets. Market expansion sustained strong sales for Display Materials despite the impact of price declines for plasma display panels, resulting in a 45% increase in sales over the previous year.

Sales for Healthcare Businesses such as monomers for ophthalmic lens and Pharmaceutical Intermediates were strong due to firm sales for plastic lens material with a high refractive index. This resulted in sales growth of 1% over the previous year.

Sales for Chemical Products Businesses such as polymerization inhibitors and adhesive ingredients for tires and wood were strong due to product price hikes reflecting the steep rise in materials prices. This led to a 22% increase in sales over the previous year.

The Agrochemicals business sustained a 2% decline in sales over the previous year due to stagnant sales of insecticides and other products.

The above factors contributed to a 9.3 billion increase in segment sales over the previous year to 192.7 billion yen, comprising 13% of Group sales. Operating income increased 1.7 billion yen over the previous year to 10.8 billion yen.

Functional Polymeric Materials

Sales for products such as Ethylene Propylene Rubber and Alpha Olefin Copolymer in the Elastomer Business remained firm as the Company made steady progress in gaining new customers and developing the market for various uses of flexible resin, with a focus on Asia, in addition to benefiting from expanding domestic demand for auto parts in particular. This resulted in an 18% increase in sales over the previous year.

Sales of specialty Polyolefin rose 12% over the previous year, mainly due to growing demand for its use in the IT industry.

Sales of Engineering Plastics increased 1% over the previous year despite stagnant sales volume, mainly for use in electronic components. This was due to growth in new grades in China, which has emerged as a new source of demand.

Resins used as raw materials for paper manufacturing and coating applications saw sales volume stagnate for the construction and general materials industries, but coating resins for cell phone applications and for thermal and heat-sensitive papers were strong, sustaining 1% growth in sales over the previous year.

Sales for Waxes, Petroleum Resins and other additives were strong due to product price hikes, which reflected the steep rise in materials prices, recording 9% growth over the previous year.

Both sales volume and pricing were stable for Acryl Amides used as Flocculants, recording 5% growth in sales over the previous year.

Sales of Urethane raw materials grew 13% over the previous year as pricing held firm for MDI and PPG, and export prices recovered for TDI in the second half of the year.

Sales for urethane resins, coating materials, adhesives and construction and casting materials were strong on the back of increased demand both domestically and overseas, recording growth of 11% over the previous year.

The above factors resulted in an increase of 18.9 billion yen in segment sales over the previous year to 281.7 billion yen. This comprised 19% of Group sales. Operating income rose to 10.1 billion yen, an increase of 1.6 billion yen over the previous year.

Basic Chemicals

Sales for Purified Terephthalic Acid (PTA) recorded 23% growth over the previous year. Contributing factors were product price revisions in the face of the steep rise in materials prices, growth in sales in response to a huge increase in demand in Asia, particularly in China, and production capacity expansion for Siam Mitsui PTA Co., Ltd. in Thailand resulting in sales growth.

Sales for Polyethylene Terephthalate (PET) declined 4% from the previous year despite product price hikes reflecting the steep rise in materials prices. This was due to a drop in the growth rate for domestic PET bottle demand and to a rise in imports.

Sales for Phenol and Bisphenol A rose 4% and 19% year-on-year, respectively. This was due to product price hikes reflecting the steep rise in materials prices.

Sales for Ethylene Glycol, Ethylene Oxide and associated derivative products rose 8% over the previous year, supported by strong demand.

Unfortunately, the Company was not able to fully cover rising costs due to the steep rise in materials prices for each product.

The above factors contributed to a 47.1 billion yen increase in segment sales over the previous year to 474.3 billion yen, comprising 32% of Group sales. Operating income declined 14.2 billion yen from the previous year to 21.8 billion yen.

Petrochemicals

Overseas and domestic demand for Ethylene and Propylene experienced growth, supported by the steady economic recovery worldwide, but production volume for both Ethylene and Propylene declined by 4% and 2%, respectively, due to periodic maintenance at the Ichihara and Osaka Ethylene plants.

Despite price revisions for Polyethylene and Polypropylene in the face of rapidly rising materials prices, the Company was unable to fully cover cost increases as materials prices rose yet further, leading to a very severe environment. However, the increase in volume handled by Idemitsu Kosan Co., Ltd. accompanying the establishment of Prime Polymer Co., Ltd. led to year-on-year sales growth of 57% for Polyethylene and 72% for Polypropylene.

The above factors contributed to a 170.4 billion yen increase in segment sales over the previous year to 487.0 billion yen, comprising 33% of Group sales. Operating income declined 9.5 billion yen from the previous year to 15.9 billion yen.

Other

External sales for the Plant Construction and Maintenance Business declined 3% from the previous year, as the external sales structure was re-evaluated to focus efforts on developing business within the Mitsui Chemicals Group.

External sales for the Warehousing and Transport Business rose 18% over the previous year due to growth in cargo volume handled.

Sales for this segment, inclusive of other business, declined 800 million yen from the previous year to 36.7 billion yen, comprising 3% of total sales. Operating income declined 700 million yen from the previous year to 600 million yen.

2. Outlook for Fiscal 2006

1) Overall outlook

Future trends in the price of crude oil are obscure, so the possibility exists that profits will come under pressure, depending on trends in raw material and fuel prices, which are presently high. The Group also anticipates severe conditions to persist as competition with chemical companies worldwide increases, particularly in Asian markets.

In response to these conditions, the Group is working to improve operating results by continuing to implement stringent cost cutting measures, through marketing activities involving the entire Group and by focusing more closely on building a product pricing structure that will keep pace with the steep rises in raw material and fuel prices.

Based on these factors, the Group's operating results forecast for next fiscal year is as follows.

(Units: billions of yen)

	Net sales	Operating income	Recurring income	Net income
FY 2006	1,700.0	70.0	70.0	35.0
FY 2005	1,472.4	58.7	62.0	44.1
Change	227.6	11.3	8.0	(9.1)
Change (%)	15%	19%	13%	(21)%

The assumptions underlying this forecast are an exchange rate of 115 yen/ 1 US dollar and a price for domestically produced naphtha of 52,000 yen/Kl.
